

Dayapuram Arts and Science College for Women

(Affiliated to the University of Calicut)

Department of English

The English department of Dayapuram College is committed to promoting an intellectual climate through creative endeavours, socio-cultural conversations and skill development. Founded in 2011, English department combines teaching, public engagement and extensive deliberations to engage the students in creating broader perspectives and also works as a team of dedicated faculty, guided by resource persons from various Universities in and around India, striving to achieve excellence in all academic and non-academic pursuits.

Bachelor of Arts in Functional English

This three year course in BA Functional English is designed with a view to provide the students an in-depth knowledge in various disciplines like Media Studies, Translation Studies, Film Studies, Theatre Studies, and Creative Writing. The course also provides Literatures in English and Cultural Studies as complementary papers. With some additional training, Functional English graduates could consider jobs in Teaching, Journalism, Marketing, Advertising, Public relations, Content writing, Publishing, Law and Civil Service.

Bachelor of Arts in English Language and Literature

A three year course in BA English Language and Literature aims at building a strong foundation in Literature and also to make students conversant with the contemporary strands of literary styles and theories. The course offers Journalism and Media Studies as complementary papers. A graduate in English Language and Literature has a wide arena of career opportunities including Teaching, Research, Law, Civil Service, Public relations, Creative Writing, etc.

Master of Arts in English Language and Literature

A two year course in MA English Language and Literature aims at giving a wider exposure to students through subjects like British Literature, American and African Literature, Indian Literature, Postcolonial Literature and Literary theory and criticism. An MA in English may support the students in a variety of career choices like becoming an Educator, Copywriter, Translator including the pursuit of a doctoral degree.

Activities

- Programmes that give students exposure to the ways of English language and literature.
- Possibilities of participating in and managing 18 clubs and societies of the college.
- Avenues for exposure in cultural and social work, alongside student events for edutainment.

English Club

The English club focuses to develop and effectively use the four skills of Language (Listening, Speaking, Reading and Writing) and also equips students with news literacy skills, Performative skills, Peer group interaction skills and artistic skills.

Literary and Film Club

The Literary and Film Club aims to groom students who have a taste for Literature and Films. It will offer opportunities to appreciate various forms of Literature and Films and thereby improve the literary and movie aesthetics of students.

Events

Amalgam Annual Invited Lecture in Functional English and Literature

Annual College tour

Creative Writing practices and Workshops

Media Writing Practices and Workshops

Extension Lectures

Inter Collegiate Activities

CONTACT:

Ms. Seetha Lakshmi

Head of the Department

✉ seethalakshmi@dayapuram.org

☎ 9539616620

Dayapuram Arts and Science College for Women
N.I.T Campus P.O
Calicut – 673601

Ph: 0495-2288536, 2287236

www.dayapuramcollege.org
info@dayapuram.org

